PARADISE FOUND

Ringed by beaches on its own private peninsula, One&Only Le Saint Géran - Mauritius is a haven of secluded bliss, and a favourite of luxury-travel specialist Susie Freeman

When it comes to finding a slice of paradise abroad, the wealth of choice can be overwhelming – which is why it is highly recommended to consult Susie Freeman, the leading Mauritius luxury-travel specialist, whose little black book of contacts is your key to holiday heaven.

Top of her luxe-list this year is One&Only Le Saint Géran, the Mauritian retreat with a setting so tranquil it belies the fabulous five-star attention lavished on its guests. Occupying a private peninsula, it is shaded by swaying palm-trees and surrounded by white sands. The all-suite accommodation puts the emphasis on elegant luxury, each one offering views of the gardens and ocean, and with its own personal butler. But for ultimate seclusion, treat yourself to a stay in the Villa, which comes with a pool and terrace, and a team of staff attending to your every whim.

The private peninsula

When you do venture out of your private sanctuary, you needn't lift a finger. Once ensconced by the beach, pool or in the renowned One&Only Spa, you'll discover service as discreet as it is attentive, allowing you to make the most of your precious holiday time.

If you're feeling active, head to the Gary Player-designed golf course, the tennis courts, or the lagoon for a wide selection of water sports. Finally, restaurants such as Prime, a contemporary grill, and the fine-dining Rasoi by Vineet, led by Michelin-starred chef Vineet Bhatia, will delight even the most demanding palates. One&Only Le Saint Géran: the home of luxury holidays.
