MAGICAL MAURITIUS

SUCCUMB TO THE CARE OF THE RECOGNISED SPECIALIST ON MAURITIUS, SUSIE FREEMAN

Mauritius is many people's idea of a dream holiday destination, with its perfect year-round weather, eclectic mix of global cuisines and warm, inviting seas. With its swaying palms and abundant flora and fauna, it is at once exotic and sophisticated, relaxing and revitalising, astonishing and inviting.

While it's hard to improve on perfection, if you entrust the arrangements to Mauritian guru Susie Freeman you can be assured of an even more idyllic holiday. Susie has got to know the island inside out and will impart her unique specialised knowledge to her clients. Nothing is too much trouble. She'll tip you off on the best restaurants, the best sightseeing opportunities and even the best designer boutiques.

As well as taking clients to luxury resorts, Susie also recommends a few specially chosen villas for those seeking the ultimate in privacy. It's a great option if you are travelling with children or if you simply prefer to take life at your own pace. Villas are tastefully decorated and highly individual. Guests are looked after by live-in or live-out staff (depending on the size of the villa) and cooks, cleaners, gardeners and the rest all come as standard. For a family or a house party, a villa is well worth considering.

Mauritius is also a fabulous wedding and honeymoon destination. Leave the arrangements to Susie and you can be sure it'll be a once in a lifetime experience.

Whatever your ideal holiday involves, be it golf, luxury accommodation, beach barbeques, state-of-the-art technology or a pampering spa, leave all the details to Susie Freeman and you can be assured of a fabulous holiday.
